Your Board of Directors has brought you into the digital age. You no longer need to wait for your newsletter to arrive in the mail. You already have it and will not be getting another copy. I am changing the format so all the information about the upcoming meeting will be on the first page so you can print it out and keep it as a reminder. You can choose to print or read on-line the rest of the newsletter. If you should misplace your copy, you can go to www.nordenclub.com for another. You can register your attendance by clicking on the red or green button and send the email to Ron Nielsen. Len
